Valuable Table Silver Taken From Two Watch Hill Cottages -Subscribers to Red Cross Fund Being Reminded to Come Across—Dr. Joseph A. Higgins Ordered to Report at Washington-Rev. Alfred J. Cooper Fined for Marry. ing a Person Under Age-Sixty-eighth Wedding Anni-

After several weeks' interval, two more burglaries were committed at Watch Hill, Monday night, the intruders specializing in solid silver ware at one place and in solid and plated ware in another, and, so far as known, took nothing else. In both cases entrance was made by cutting out a wire screen and raising a rear window. They took from the cottage of Mrs. Samuel G. Bettle of Philadelphia, located near the site of the old Larkin house, a box containing solid silver ware, leaving the empty how in the Miss Mabel Saunders has returned

At the cottage of Mrs. A. R. Adams, of New York city, on the Ocean road, not far from the golf grounds, these solid silver articles were taken: Six teaspoons, ten sugar spoons, an ice cream knife, sauce ladle, an olive spoon, and a gravy ladle valued by its associations. Also, this plated ware: Twenty-five forks, six table spoons, four fish forks, six coffee spoons, one fish set, one salad set, four oyster forks, six knives, eighteen tea spoons, eleven marked A, and 11 butter knives.

This board is near the now to flice entrance to Wilcox as has been intimated. This board is near the post office entrance to Wilcox park and was erected in connection with the Red Cross campaign, to indicate by a painted thermometer the progress of the whirlwind campaign. Westerly's allotment was $10,000, but the sum of $29,576.88 was subscribed, and the red paint, was spattered above the mercury bulb, indicating the overtaxing of the thermometer. Many of the contributions were given on the instalment plan and the first payment was due Aug. 1. Dr. Joseph A. Higgins of South Manchester, who completed a brief vacation at the home of his mother, Mrs. Mary Higgins in West Broad street, Monday morning, and motored back to his home, offered his services to his country several months ago. When he arrived home telegraphic orders awaited summoning him immediately to the Army and Navy medical training school at Washington, D. C., and he reported there Tuesday. He will ask for two weeks leave to arrange for closing up his practice. Dr. Higgins is a graduate of the Westerly High school and the Baltimore Medical College. For the past eight years he has been a successful practitioner in South Manchester. The police departments in the cities and towns of Rhode Island will cooperate with the federal department of justice in rounding up all young men who falled to respond to the orders to appear for examination before the local boards in compliance with the selective service law. The belief prevails that in most cases official notice to appear has not reached the registrants, or that some did not comprehend the full meaning of the notice, many of the delinquents being of foreign birth. Arrests will be made where it is found the men deliberately ignored the orders.

The public schools of Westerly will resume next Tuesday.
